My Story

Tempe Town Lake is a mere 20 minutes from my house, and I've got to admit, its an OK spot to spend a day. It is stocked multiple times per year (for a stocking schedule go to www.azgfd.com), has an almost infinite brim and carp population, and every evening the trout practically jump onto shore. What's wrong you ask? It's main drawback is that it is urban, and therefore very overfished. Get here early or don't bother, the crowds and the scorching Arizona sun make midday fishing impossible.
