Fishing Report

My Story

Arizona is like a coin, with scorching deserts and small, urban ponds on one side, and rich, dense forests with breathtaking canyon lakes on the other. This report is on the latter. Up North (near and above the Mogollon Rim) the lakes are cooler, and able to sustain a large population of trout year-round. This makes for some excellent fishing, especially if you know how to fly-fish. These lakes, the trout, and fly-fishing are the things that have put Arizona on the map for angling. The fishing i
