Fishing Report

My Story

Inside santee state park, this area laong the shorelien is a great spot for a day of catfishing with success. a great psot for those who can not easily access a boat. loacated near adrop off, this area produces both small 3 to 4 pound cats to the bigger ones over 15 pounds. the santee copper lakes are home to the all tackle world record channel catfish and the first inland lake stripers.
