My Story

Kinda of a hard place to find while navigating thru the streets of Alameda. If you can find it, it has been a great producer of some big stripper during the runs. I like to fish the area where the rougher bay water meets the milder water of the cove. There is a boat launch here that you do not have to pay for. Very little know spot. On the inside of the rock wall you tend to catch bigger fish but way less often. Its gets cold out at night here so be prepared. Also a lantern is very helpful as th
