Fishing Report

My Story

This little lake is a no motor lake. I was out with my brother one tie and we were drifting salmon eggs in cheese juice and slayed them. I've been ther a few times since and caught some her and there. The water turns in the creek down from the powerhouse. Drift thru this area and use three to 4 bb size shot and a 3' leader let it drift to the deeper holes and hang on. Big rainbows. might be some browns in there. I might try to flot tube it sometime in the next year and report more later.
