Fishing Report

My Story

Fishing the East River is a great spot to find large carp and will be very challenging if you use ultralight tackle. I have have had carp straighten out several hooks on me when fishing with ultra light tackle. It is great fun although keeping these fish are not reccomended unless you want a wall mount. The river is polluted from years of papermills dumping their waste into the river. There is a clean up project underway for both the East and Fox Rivers.
