My Story

Fishing on Washington Island is best on the pier where the Ferry docks especially when the ferry arrives and departs from the Island. Several trophy fish have been taken on the Island and you will either need to ferry across or have a larger boat to get to the Island. Small craft should never attempt to motor to the Island as strong cross currents at Death's Door will take control of small craft and endangering the lives of all aboard. Don't even think about using small craft to get to Washingt
