Fishing Report

My Story

Mackerel jigging on the Northumberland Strait on July 28, 2007 as you can see only took pictures for the first one's and none after. We caught over 300 and we had a ball that afternoon we even cook some on board with onions and potatoes plus water from the ocean really good. We always fish that way a big gang on the boat a Saturday or Sunday usually and we have contest at the end of July and some in August also.
